

Position Title: Lab Technician (MLT) or Med Tech (MT)
Department: Laboratory
Pay Rate: doe

Job Summary:

Performs analysis and reports test results within department standards and hospital policies and procedures.

Job Relationships:

Responsible to: Laboratory Manager, Chief Medical Technologist, and Pathologists

Positions directly supervised: none

Essential Job Functions:

The following is a summary of the essential functions of this job. The incumbent may perform other duties, both major and minor, that are not mentioned below; and specific functions may change from time to time.

Qualifications:

The following qualifications, or equivalent, are the minimum requirements necessary to perform essential functions of this job.

Education and formal training:

Associate degree in Physical, Chemical or Biological Science from an approved school of medical Laboratory Technicians with MLT (ASCP) certification or equivalent. May have passed the HHS (Health and Human Services) certification exam or have military certification. Or for MT, B.S. degree in Medical Technology or Science with MT (ASCP) certification or equivalent.

Work Experience:

None.

Knowledge, skills, and abilities required:

Must have an understanding of medical terminology. Must be able to perform repetitive procedures at laboratory bench. Must be able to coordinate workload, departmental activities and trouble shoot instrument problems with little supervision.

Physical Requirements:

Must be able to see test instruments and results, be able to effectively operate test equipment and be able to speak and hear for communication with patients, hospital personnel, etc. Must be able to lift 50 lbs.